MONDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 27.

STRANGE TALE OF DIVORCE.—A strange case of divorce was decided in the Circuit Court of St. Louis on Monday. In 1849 Britton A. Hill, a prominent lawyer of St. Louis, and his wife, on a joint petition, were divorced by act of the Legislature. In 1854 the lady was married to D. Roberts Barclay, with whom she has since lived. The property which was allowed has but he Legislature is now worth pear. lowed her by the Legislature is now worth nearly a million. In 1857 Hill married again, and during the war Mrs. Hill went to Europe, and, in consequence of some misconduct while there, her husband sued for divorce. Subsequently she was reported drowned, which proved false. Afterward she became attached to the household of King Victor Emmanuel, and some months ago died, and Hill's suit for divorce was dismissed some time last year.

The trustees of Mrs. Barclay, Hill's first wife, brought suit to compel Samuel Simmons to purchase a piece of property, according to agreement. He refused, on the ground that the divorce granted by the Legislature was illegal, and a clear title to the property could not be given: The question was taken to the Supreme Court, which decided against the Legislature, and yesterday, to obviate all difficulties, Hill applied to the Circuit Court for a divorce from the wife with whom he has not lived for over twenty years, and who has been married to another man for sixteen years. The decree was granted, and under the law of the State the children by both marriages are made legitimate, and all ends well. The case is full of romantic details and strange circumstances.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COAL OIL LAMPS. PERKINS & HOUSE'S PATENT.

Having received the agency for the above in this section of the State, I respectfully request the public to call and examine the same. They are absolutely safe from breaking, and being constructed on the principle of Sir Humphrey Davy's safety lamp, cannot explode. Mr. W. H. Ruffner, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Virginia, writes:

"I have used one of Perkins & House's Non-Explosive Kerosene Lamps for more than a month. Before trying it, I took it to pieces and saw that it was constructed on the principle of Davy's safety lamp, and that with proper use no flame could possibly find admission to the lamp, the lamb that with proper use no flame could possibly find admission to the lamp, the lamb that with proper use no flame could possibly find admission to the lamp, the lamb that with proper use no flame could possibly find admission to the lamp, the lamb that we have the lamb that we have the same than the same transfer of the lamb that we have the same transfer of the lamb that we have the same transfer of the lamb tran although it may be filled with explosive gas and lighted while in that condition. My use of it has confirmed my good opinion of the lamp, and I intend substituting it throughout my house for the dangerous lamp now in use. I consider the invention an important contribution to the safety of persons and property."

CHARLES WHITTLESEY. UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER,

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR IN BANKRUPTCY.

Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobstructed by the fifty per cent. clause, so-called, another opportunity offers to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being Uni-ted States Commissioner he will endeavor to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hill as promptly as in Rich-mond or elsewhere, and at much less expense to parties. It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts. Address personally or by letter at No. 12 south Royal street, jy 16--1y-Alexandria, Va.
